The Global Fund

Executive Director

Introduction

This specification should be read in conjunction with information on the Global Fund's website at: <http://www.theglobalfund.org>

The Global Fund intends to appoint a new Executive Director. This person will be an exceptional leader and manager of people and systems. She/he will be a gifted communicator. She/he will carry authority based on relevant substantive expertise and experience in implementing countries. She/he will possess or acquire a clear understanding of the Global Fund's strategy and will impart a compelling vision for its realization.

The Executive Director will bring these competencies together to achieve the Global Fund's mission: to attract, manage and disburse additional resources to make a sustainable and significant contribution in the fight against AIDS, tuberculosis and malaria in countries in need, and contributing to poverty reduction as part of the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs).

The Global Fund

Background

The Global Fund is a 21st-century financing institution and partnership organization designed to accelerate the end of AIDS, tuberculosis and malaria as epidemics. Its mission is to attract, leverage and invest additional resources to end the three epidemics and to support attainment of the SDGs. The Global Fund is agile, responsive and committed to serving affected communities, putting implementing countries in the lead to deliver healthier, productive and stable families, communities and nations. Since its inception in 2002, the Global Fund has saved more than 20 million lives through its innovative partnerships and has disbursed more than US$30 billion to support programs in more than 150 countries. Programs supported by the Global Fund have provided antiretroviral therapy for HIV for 9.2 million people, anti-tuberculosis treatment for 15.1 million people and 659 million long lasting insecticidal nets for the prevention of malaria.

The Global Fund's Strategy 2017-2022: Investing to End Epidemics

The Global Fund's 2017-2022 strategy, Investing to End Epidemics, is to invest for maximum impact, supporting the implementation of programs in the most effective way possible. It is aligned fully with partner plans and with the SDGs, and will contribute to the 2030 agenda. It outlines a bold agenda for the six-year period, 2017-2022. It is based on an ambitious vision, mission, and four strategic objectives, which are each underpinned by a number of sub-objectives and supported by two strategic enablers. The core objectives of the Global Fund 2017-2022 Strategy are:

1. Maximizing the impact of investments for HIV, TB and malaria requires differentiated approaches for diverse country contexts, increased alignment, and planning for sustainability of programs. Countries must be supported to implement and sustain impactful programs targeting the three diseases from both a programmatic and financial perspective over the longer term. Successful implementation of this strategy will contribute to progress in the fight against the three diseases aligned with the UNAIDS Fast Track Strategy, the End TB Strategy, and the Global Technical Strategy for Malaria; and to the achievement of the Sustainable Development Goals.

2. Building resilient and sustainable systems for health are crucial to ensuring that people have access to effective, efficient, and accessible services through well-functioning and responsive health and community systems. The existence of strong systems for health is essential to making progress against HIV, TB and malaria, and to ensuring that countries can address the varied health challenges they face from reproductive, men's, women's, children's, and adolescent health, to global health security threats, to non-communicable diseases.
3. Human rights barriers, stigma and discrimination undermine an effective response to the three diseases. Promoting and protecting human rights is essential to ensure that countries can control their epidemics, scale up where needed, and sustain their gains. Addressing gender inequality is essential as it drives increases in infection rates, and contributes to differential access to health services for men, women and transgender people. Gender inequality reduces the ability of women and girls to protect and keep themselves healthy, and access social services like education.
4. Mobilizing increased resources is required for successful scale-up of the response to the three diseases. According to the global technical strategies against HIV, TB and malaria, the global health community must front load investments during the next strategy period to maintain the gains made to date and accelerate progress.

Through this strategy, the Global Fund will contribute to the 2030 agenda including the principle of shared responsibility, the approach of inclusive, multi-sectoral participation, and the priorities as outlined in the SDG goals. In particular, financing provided through the Global Fund will be a major contributor to enabling countries to meet Goal 3 and the associated target that seeks to end the epidemics of AIDS, TB, and malaria by 2030.

Global Fund Principles

The work of the Global Fund is based upon four principles – partnership, country-ownership, performance based financing and transparency – empowering implementers to lead the response to the three diseases, supported by a diverse range of partners in the health sector. The Global Fund plays a critically important role, and it is imperative that funding is invested for maximum impact, supporting the implementation of programs in the most effective way possible.
