Mark Adams

Mark Adams leads the firm's operations in the United States.

Mark is an active member of the firm's CEO/Board Services team and Global Insurance practice. He recruits a broad range of senior executives including Board Director, CEO, President, COO and CFO for both privately held and publicly traded firms in insurance and related industries. He also advises global clients to align talent with their overall strategy, assessing existing leadership teams, especially around Board/CEO succession planning.

Previous Experience

Prior to joining Russell Reynolds Associates, Mark worked at Marsh, where he was a Managing Director and the Northeast Growth Leader. He was a member of the Executive Committee and managed client relationships as well as industry practices and sales. Prior to Marsh, Mark served in the British Army in a range of operational, management, strategic and top-level business planning roles. His roles included Principal Adviser to the Deputy Commander-in-Chief of U.K. Land Forces, Infantry Company Commander on counter-insurgency operations, and instructor at the Royal Military Academy Sandhurst.

Education

Mark received his M.A. in modern history from Magdalen College, Oxford University. He also received an M.A. in military studies from Cranfield University and an M.Phil. in international relations from Pembroke College, Cambridge University. He is a graduate of both the Royal Military Academy Sandhurst and Army Command and Staff College
